

Why join LUCI?

There are many reasons why local governments choose to become a member of LUCI:

1. Networking and Cooperation

LUCI provides local governments with a vast global network of peers, lighting professionals, and experts. By becoming a member, local governments gain access to a platform that facilitates networking and opportunities to engage with peers facing similar challenges, share experiences, and collaborate on lighting projects. Benefit from the collective knowledge and expertise of the LUCI network to enhance your local urban lighting strategies.

See for example... LUCI Events, LUCI Projects

2. Knowledge Sharing and Best Practices

LUCI is a place for knowledge and best practices in urban lighting. As a member, local governments gain insights into successful lighting projects, innovative approaches, and the latest trends and updates. Learn from the experiences of others and leverage this knowledge to improve your own urban lighting initiatives. LUCI organizes events on a regular basis, face-to-face as well as online, where members can engage in in-depth discussions and learn from the expertise of peers and industry leaders.

See for example... LUCI Working groups, LUCI Hub

3. International Visibility

LUCI membership offers local governments the opportunity to enhance their visibility on the international stage. Promote your lighting achievements, projects and initiatives through LUCI's various channels, events, and publications. Gain recognition as a place that prioritizes and excels in urban lighting. This exposure can attract new attention and collaboration opportunities, giving you a global and local position as a leader in sustainability and quality of life.

See for example... LUCI Publications, Cities & Lighting Awards

4. Capacity building

LUCI offers local governments and urban lighting professionals a range of learning and capacity building opportunities. Access webinars and conferences that keep you updated with the latest policy recommendations, technology trends, and research insights in urban lighting. Stay at the forefront of knowledge, expand your expertise, and inspire innovation within your local lighting community.

See for example... LUCI Coffee Bre@ks, LUCI Hub

5. Advocacy and Influence

By joining LUCI, local governments become part of a collective platform advocating for sustainable and innovative urban lighting practices. LUCI actively engages with policymakers, international organizations, and the public to shape urban lighting policies. As a member, you can contribute to this advocacy, influence the development of lighting frameworks, and align them with your city's goals and priorities.

See for example... LUCI Declaration, LUCI Charter

>>>> Overall, being a member of LUCI empowers local governments to meet, learn, act, speak and shape the future of urban lighting together. It opens new avenues for local governments to improve their urban lighting policies.
